To be effective, technology cannot exist in a vacuum, but must become part of the whole educational environment. New measures of evaluation are under development which would help to better define the role of technology in its wider context.

We request you to provide an opportunity to introduce our initiative in your college and need a space on your esteemed website as well as notice-board to post our banner.

We are also looking for your feedback and suggestions to enhance user experience on the portal.

Looking forward to your comments and response positively,

Regards and Thanking You in Anticipation,

Ajit Sabnis,
